

The Learning Link Ambassador Program is an opportunity to get connected and stay connected!

What is the Learning Link Ambassador Program?

- An exclusive group of educators with the common goal of building and sharing ready-to-use learning resources
- Designed to bring like-minded people together to share best practices in regards to building and strengthening our learning communities

Who qualifies as an Ambassador?

- Educators with a passion for figuring out how to address key issues of recovery through building back stronger learning communities
- Educators who are already experts at using Learning Link with their students, both inside and outside the classroom, and want to share their expertise with other teachers in their state or nationwide

Learning Link Ambassadors will:

- Receive FREE kits for raffles, door prizes, to promote sessions and activities.
- Receive advanced knowledge and access to new activities and videos.
- Have access to limited-edition Connected Class swag.
- Be featured prominently on social media, to help us build and grow our learning community.
- Receive full or partial reimbursement for pre-approved travel expenses for presentations at regional or national conferences.
- Receive digital badges for use in profiles and social media.

What do Ambassadors do?

- Use Learning Link in their daily work life with learners in all types of settings, including (but now limited to): elementary-middle school classes, after school programs, homeschooling, summer programs, special needs programs, and teacher education programs.
- LOVE to share ideas and best practices with like-minded educators.
- Provide input and ideas with Connected Class leadership team on content, features, and professional learning ideas.
- Submit proposals to present at local, state, regional, or national trade shows.
